

Zhejiang Larbene Home textile Co., Ltd. is a modern company specializing in exploring, weaving, dyeing and selling upholstery fabrics.

With the introduction of one senior designer from Italy, our company has our own team specializing in developing our core products. Especially based on the new material and special fiber, we are particularly strong at creating new and original upholstery fabrics according to the market's fashion demands. Our new products of different styles are classified into several series including charpie, linen-imitation, cotton-imitation and plain and some of which have won high market visibility and market share domestic and abroad.
